

Award winning Flames of the Forest is North Queensland's ultimate event space hidden only ten minutes from Port Douglas in the heart of one of the oldest rainforest's on earth.

The only off site venue with a permanent, black silk lined marquee highlighted by hand made crystal and bud light chandeliers and hundreds of flames, Flames of the Forest is truly an elegant rainforest ballroom that won't wash out with a little drizzle!

Offsite does not have to mean uncomfortable, boring or shrinking violet. Flames of the Forest features marble bathrooms, padded chairs, pashminas for ladies and an incredible range of entertainment options. From the dramatic, (tenor appearing from the forest) to the big name (the office favourite is Diesel) and everything in between, plus the ultimate WOW factor of a burning reveal, blazing fire trail or pyrotechnics exploding in the southern sky.

With the ability to cater for up to 850 guests for a sit down dining experience or an intimate team dinner for 30 guests, Flames of the Forest offers every group the option to enjoy this special part of the world.

Excited? Want more? Guess what? Most importantly, your event and guests will never be turned down, cut short or disengaged, as Flames is the only venue with no curfews, party dampening noise restrictions or access to the mobile network!

Flames of the Forest ... Australia's ultimate off site event venue.

"... the group had their socks knocked off ... this makes it a little challenging for me for next year's gala awards event!"
